

Cover Story — Page 4

MAJ Derryl Pooler of the 404th Civil Affairs Battalion is mobbed by happy students as he passes out candy at a school in Irbil, Iraq. — Staff Sgt. Jerry Morrison, USAF

CONTE

Soldiers | June 2003 | Vol

NTS

u m e 5 8 , N o . 6

Page 18

Page 12

Page 34

Page 42

Features

Operation Iraqi Freedom Update 4

With coalition forces firmly in control, Iraq looks forward to a future without Saddam Hussein.

Saving the Oil Wells 12

Even as the war unfolded, experts were moving in to extinguish well fires in Iraq's oil fields.

After the Medevac 14

In Germany, the Deployed Warrior Medical Management Center tends to soldiers injured and wounded in Iraq and Afghanistan.

Training a Force for Freedom 18

At U.S.-run camps in Hungary, Iraqi exiles learned how to assist the coalition effort in their homeland.

The Ammo Specialists 20

Civilian experts ensured the availability and safety of ammunition used in Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Weddings Before War 34

Marriage was a popular predeployment activity for Iraq-bound Maine National Guard soldiers.

Mobilization Masters 38

Garrison support units help transition reserve-component soldiers to active duty.

Through "Murphy's" Eyes 40

SFC Mark Baker calls on his own experiences to create his popular "PVT Murphy" cartoons.

The Gift of Groceries 42

An innovative gift program helps military families purchase needed commissary items.

Europe's Reserve Training Brigade 44

The 3747th Multi-Functional Training Bde. offers a range of educational opportunities.

Departments

- 2 Mail Call
- 24 On Point
- 28 Tech Notes
- 30 Postmarks
- 32 Lifestyles
- 36 Sharp Shooters
- 47 Around the Services
- 48 Focus on People

• soldiersmagazine.com

